

He Risked His Life
in Escape From Court House Safe

Special to The News.
BEAUMONT, Texas, Feb. 1.—Mohamed S. Campbell, 25, of Port Arthur, arrested in Beaumont Wednesday night, was in jail this morning for Louisville where he was charged with swindling.

When taken into custody, Harris had $1,000 in his pocket and approximately $20,000 worth of costly jewelry, rings and silk in his room.

According to police and Pinkerton detectives who have been trailing him for weeks, the young Syrian planned the goods on credit from a New York importer and sold them at retail throughout the country.

In Louisville he went to a bank officer and, using the goods he had secured on credit as security, obtained loans of $15,000. The goods were to be boxed and placed in storage until the note was paid. When the date came due bank authorities broke open the boxes to find they were packed with refuse.

Pinkerton agents were employed by the New York importers to locate their missing goods and trailed Harris to Galveston where, with the assistance of police, they arrested him Wednesday.

TRAFFIC COUNT AGAIN PROPOSED

Bracken Believes New Port Arthur Road Needed

By United News.

BEAUMONT, Texas, Feb. 1.—The admirability of taking a census of the number of automobiles on the Beaumont-Port Arthur road came up for discussion again Thursday afternoon at the chamber of commerce meeting here.

E. C. Bracken, manager of the chamber of commerce declared there was more traffic on the Beaumont-Port Arthur road than on any street in Beaumont with the exception of Pearl and Orleans.

The survey, according to Bracken will serve two purposes in that it will show that another road is needed between the two cities and in addition to this, the figures obtained will be available to show that the present amount of money allotted for the upkeep of the road is not sufficient.

The proposition will be taken under advisement pending a further investigation in the project. The matter was placed before the commissioners court last Monday and referred to County Attorney Marvin Sourlock in order to determine whether or not the county could use funds to make the census.

BEAUMONT, Texas, Feb. 1.—A proposition to light the Beaumont-Port Arthur road will be laid before the commissioners court here within a few weeks by the Eastern Texas Electric company. Ground Hog to Forecast Whether Winter Has Gone

Upon sunshine or clouds Saturday depends the breaking of winter.

Sunshine, then spring will not be here for 40 days; clouds, and winter is gone.

For Saturday old man ground hog will poke his head out, and if he sees his shadow, plop! Back inside he goes to sleep 40 days. Spring, he figures, is that far away. But failing to see his shadow, he'll gallop around, satisfied the winter is past.

A WOMAN'S WOMAN

Is it better for a woman to serve in the humble role of a homemaker, a sort of unpaid domestic drudge submerging all her own ambitions and ideals, and thereby hold her family together, or let the family drift, even to the point of disaster while she makes a success of herself and carves out a brilliant career?

This is one of the questions asked in the human domestic drama, "A Woman's Woman," a Charles Giblyn photoplay production, which is at the Strand theatre.

THE SILENT COMMAND

The majority of screen patrons want plenty of "kick" in their pictures. "The Silent Command" is full of it. This William Fox production is showing at the Peoples theater. Billed as a spectacular melodrama, it was found to contain a number of high-grade sensations that had a logical bearing on the story and kept every man, woman and child with their eyes glued to the screen.

Expert production under the direction of J. Gordon Edwards and capable acting of the entire list of characters were largely responsible for

Stanley Rogers Meets Mamos in Finish Match February

Minot Ace Returns to Contest Boasts of Greek Grappler

Fresh From Series in Oklahoma, Rogers Coming Prepared to Cope With Famous Wrist-Lock Contortionist in No-Time-Limit Bill

By BILL ARCHER

STANLEY ROGERS, the whirlwind sensation of Minot, North Dakota, will meet Harry Mamos, Boston Greek artist, in Elks theater Wednesday, February 6th, in a finish, no-time limit, wrestling match.

Will Fort, local promoter, made this announcement today, following receipt of a message from Rogers accepting the match, and one from Charlie Rentrup declining to return here, and claiming his arm was in bad condition.

Rogers has already been introduced to Port Arthur landom. He is an ace with a capital "A". Rogers is clever, speedy, sensational—every thing that the fans can wish for in a finished exponent of the mat game.

He made his debut here not long ago against the "Pride of Port Arthur" when he faced George Actor Greek sensation, in a finish match. Previously Rogers had defeated Actor for a thousand dollar purse, and he came here in the very pink of condition. Armlocks defeated him—the armlock artist put 'em on that night in better fashion, but Stanley made George look slow more than once.

HEADLOCKS WON'T COUNT

Headlocks won't phase the Minot hurricane, and Mamos hasn't become adept at the armlock which Actor puts over so well, the deduction from this is that when Rogers and Mamos enter the squared arena here the 6th, a battle-royal more than evenly matched, is sure to result.

Mamos is agile, clever and a live contortionist. Toe holds and headlocks don't bother him, and he is usually able to squirm out of body grips, so Mr. Rogers will find himself needing all the speed he can bring along to beat this boy.

MAMOS USES WRIST HOLD

Mamos, like his fellow countryman, is a strong believer in the development of a lone hold. Mamos has fully developed the wrist lock, with which he tortures his opponents unmercifully at times, and with which he has been able to get out of the most grueling locks.

Mamos will probably put his knowledge of the wrist lock and his accurate knowledge of leg holds against the strength and speed of his opponent when the two 185-pounders clash here.

STANLEY FULL OF TRAINING

Stanley has just finished a series of engagements through the state of Oklahoma, among the lot being a long-drawn scrap between the Minot giant and Billy Edwards, a sensation in the 185-pound class. There wasn't a victor and Wrestling News, commenting on the battle, declared that it was slow. Rogers, however, is in better condition than when he met Actor and will return this trip confident of disposing of Mamos in short order, back on his feet physically, and he is ready for the grind that he will face on the evening of the 6th.

On the other hand, Mamos is full of surprises. He too, is in trim, matches with Clarence Eklund and other top-notchers throughout Texas and Arkansas of recent date have put Harry

ARRANGE FAST PRELIMINARIES

Fort is arranging several classy preliminary contests for the Minot-Rogers card, which is rated by the followers as an athletic venture up to the standard of the Actor-Eklund, Actor-Rogers, Actor-Rentrup clashes that have been presented here. The prelims are destined to be snappy, "short and sweet," as Fort avers, and ought to be spicy.

MIXED HEAVY BATTLE BARRED

Lands Glory and Dollars

No Chance For Wills to Meet Jack Dempsey

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—In the course of tracking down mysterious millionaires who are bidding wild for a heavyweight contest between Harry Wills and Luis Firpo, some very interesting facts concerning the entire heavyweight situation have been learned from a source that is absolutely authentic and reliable.

These facts are:

That Jack Dempsey and Harry Wills positively cannot fight this year and it is doubtful that they ever will be allowed to fight in this country.

That Tex Rickard will promote the Wills-Firpo fight—if they fight.

That Rickard will meet the bid of any rival promoter and that he will have the advantage in his favor because of his reputation.

That there is only one state in the country that is willing to listen to a mixed bout and that this state will sanction a Wills-Firpo bout only after some clever political manipulation.

That New York state positively will not grant permission for a Dempsey-Wills or a Firpo-Wills fight.

That the authorities are willing to sanction a Dempsey-Gibbons or a Dempsey-Firpo fight, but they will not permit Dempsey to fight more than twice and probably not more than once this summer.

While positive information was not secured it was understood that Connecticut is the only state that will even listen to a proposal for a mixed heavyweight fight and that Pennsylvania and New York will never permit one.

KILBANE "MAKES UP"

John Kilbane, former feather weight champion, now retired, has "killed and made up" with his former manager, Jimmy Dunn. "I'm sorry we ever parted," Kilbane says. However, no evidence exists to show that Kilbane has turned over any cents to Dunn and he made most of his income after deserting Dunn.

TRAVIS JACKSON

U. S. SCORES ONE POINT WHEN OLYMPIX OPENS

Manager McGraw of the Giants gave the biggest salary boost to a star player this year. Travis Jackson, Arkansas collegian, who did spectacular relief work at short and third for the National League champions last summer.

And besides the raise McGraw admitted the Giants owed their recent success to Jackson. "He saved the year for us by his fine hitting and fine fielding," said McGraw, "and I predict he will be one of the outstanding stars of baseball in two years."

OUT OUR WAY

BY WILLIAMS

I love the cold and wind and snow.

What do you think of this riddle, my dears? Nancy and Nick guessed as hard as they could when the Ridde-Lads read it. It's a riddle for a very cold day.

I grow, not like sweet pears and plums.
Neatly sunny skies when summer comes.

But in the winter cold and drear, Just overnight do I appear.

Most any place will do for me. Like birds with the yellow bill.

I much prefer your window sill.

But I take root with equal ease, On shutters, chimneys, roofs, or trees.

Then hang head downwards, holding tight, And grow and grow with all my might.

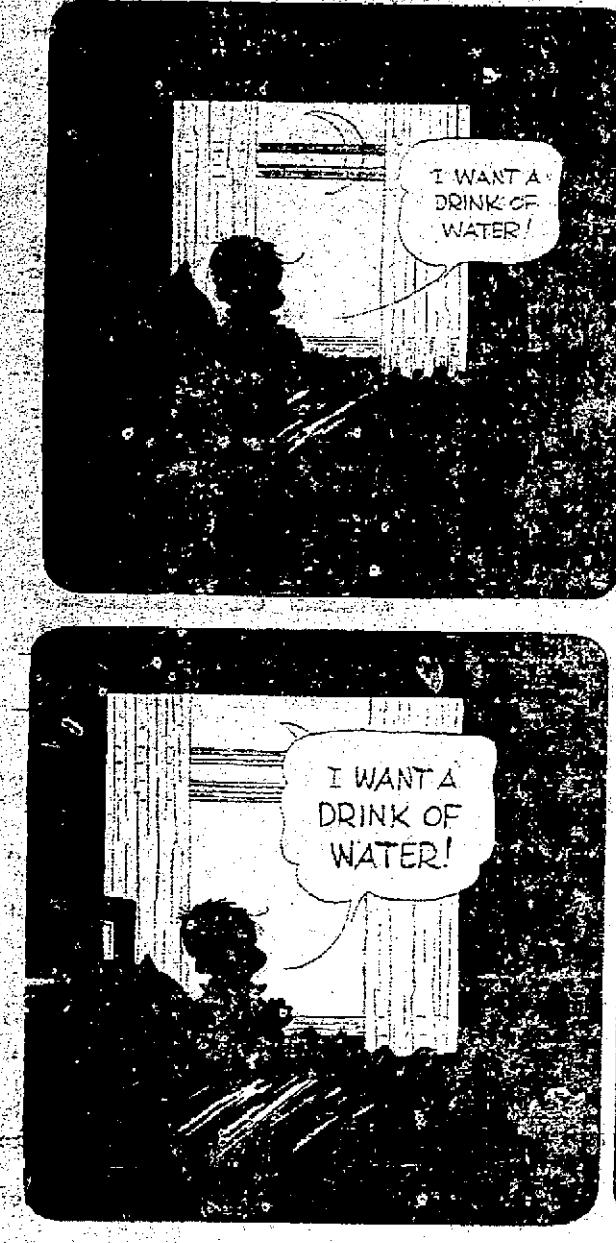

"I love the cold and wind and snow, The cold 'tis the more I grow, The sun's the thing I mostly fear, If he comes out I weep a tear.

"Like sour grapes I hang up high, Where you can't reach me; please don't try!

It isn't that I fear you much, But I shatter at the slightest touch.

"Although I'm hard and sharp and

Chapter 100 - Relics of Early Greece
Greece is divided into two parts. The lower part is almost an island, being joined to the upper part only by a thin strip of land. South of that strip scientists have found relics of people who became "civilized" at a very early time.

A city was built in that region. We speak of it as Mycenae. Walls were put up all around the city. Lions were carved in stone above a large gate. The lions look something like those sculptured in the Land of Two Rivers and other eastern places. They may have been made by tribes which came into Greece from the east.

There was a graveyard inside the city, not far from the gate. With the bodies of people were buried many things made of gold, silver, copper, bronze and glass.

The people in the city probably did not do all their eating with their hands, for bowls, ladles and spoons were put inside the graves so the dead could eat properly!

In other parts of southern Greece other relics have been dug up.

This portion of a pottery sherd showing soldiers of Greece is very early times.

This is a drawing of the outside of a gold cup found in southern Greece. Bulls breaking loose and goring men are shown.

The blonde star of the "Follies" is spending what should be her honey-

Gilda will continue to do her shif-

ering with the "Follies" until this summer when Boag will take her to Europe for their honeymoon.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—Further extension for the stock market's current recovery was indicated in the night news which set forth the reserve ratio of the nation's banking system to the highest levels since the close of the war and unpreceded volume of railway traffic reported in the news for the week ended January 14. The simultaneous improvement in the banking position and the business in the country caused another bullish reaction in the market. The New York Stock Compt. went into new high ground since last January 14. The market closed lower.
